General Comment

I understand the DOL is intent on interfering with my hard earned, self funded 401K retirement account. For whatever reason, this government, administration or anyone else in this government believes they are able or entitled to my funds I want all to know I will not allow this to be taken or restricted. Are you serious, a government that overspends to the tune of an 18 trillion dollar deficit, over blown, bloated, useless government and inept government agencies think they know better than the American people especially how I should manage and maintain my retirement savings. How dare you! I will not support anyone that tries to take over the retirement accounts of honest, actually working Americans. I will also not stand by and be silent.
